Nevada State Bank names Devan Wyson, CFP® wealth advisor

LAS VEGAS – Nevada State Bank welcomes the addition of wealth advisor Devan Wyson to our wealth and fiduciary services team. As a wealth advisor, under the Nevada Wealth Advisors brand, Wyson will provide clients with financial planning, insurance needs and investment portfolio management.

“Nevada Wealth Advisors is a key element of our holistic financial advisory role with our clients,” said Dallas Haun, chief executive officer for Nevada State Bank. “Devan’s focus will be to assist our clients with financial needs beyond the transactional branch service. He can provide professional advice for, and access to, a variety of wealth management and fiduciary services.”

Wyson is a Certified Financial Planner™ and brings several years of experience as a financial services and insurance specialist to his role. He holds various securities licenses, having previously served as director of financial planning for Wyson Financial. Wyson earned a Bachelor of Science in finance from Regis University and is currently pursuing a Master of Science in financial planning from The American College.
