Nevada State Bank names Ronald Griggs vice president, sales manager for its call center

LAS VEGAS – Nevada State Bank has named Ronald Griggs as the new vice president, sales manager for the bank’s call center.

Griggs joins Nevada State Bank after eight years in banking in Southern California. He began his career at Wells Fargo as a teller, and through a series of promotions, held the positions of personal banker, business banker, and market sales manager. He previously served as vice president of workplace solutions at BBVA Compass.

In addition to his banking experience, Griggs brings with him multiple years of call center and business development experience.

“We are excited to have Ron join our leadership team,” said Craig Kirkland, executive vice president and director of retail banking for Nevada State Bank. “His experience will allow him to focus on his top priorities of delivering quality coaching and leadership to our retail and call center colleagues.”
