Rita Vaswani appointed to Dignity Health-St. Rose Dominican Community Board

LAS VEGAS – The Dignity Health Board of Directors has appointed Rita Vaswani to the Dignity Health-St. Rose Dominican Community Board, serving a one-year term.

Vaswani is vice president, professional banking relationship manager for Nevada State Bank and has more than two decades of banking experience. She also has a strong background in health care, and focuses on banking relationships primarily serving the state's health care industry.

Vaswani is dedicated to volunteerism and her community, serving as a board member or a volunteer for several non-profit organizations. She was appointed by U.S. Sen. Harry Reid to the board of directors of the Congressional Awards and served as chair of the Nevada Congressional Award Council. She currently serves as an executive board member of the Women's Chamber of Commerce of Nevada, member of the Clark County Community Development Advisory Committee, president of the Las Vegas India Chamber of Commerce, member of the Governor's Economic Development for Nevada-India Business Development Council, and executive board member of the non-profit organization FirstMed Health & Wellness. Vaswani has also served as vice chair for the board of governors for Centennial Hills Hospital since its opening. She currently volunteers with a medical tourism group in Nevada.

Vaswani has received numerous honors, including 2015 and 2014 Las Vegas' Top 100 Women of Influence, 2014 Distinguished Women in Nevada, and 2013 Women's Hall of Fame Pioneer Award.

As a board member, Vaswani will support Dignity Health's mission of delivering compassionate, high-quality, affordable health services to the communities it serves.
