“We are honored to have been recognized once again by these awards for what we believe are some of the best products and services available in the industry,” said Harris Simmons, chairman and CEO. “It is a testament to our commitment to our customers that we were recognized for overall customer satisfaction in both middle market and small business banking. This recognition is a tribute to our commercial bankers, who are considered by their clients to be the best in the industry. It is also gratifying that we received distinction in virtually every middle market cash management category, showcasing the high value that our customers have consistently placed in these products and our treasury management professionals. Combined, these awards demonstrate the dedication of our bankers to providing the highest quality products and exceptional customer service day after day, year after year.”
