Nevada State Bank names Jamie Flanagan assistant vice president and branch manager

SPARKS, Nev. – Nevada State Bank has named Jamie Flanagan assistant vice president and branch manager of the Sparks Prater branch located at 500 E. Prater Way in Sparks. She will oversee branch staff, client services and banking operations.

Flanagan has more than 16 years of banking experience. She began her career in finance in 1999 and moved into the banking industry in 2002. Flanagan joined Nevada State Bank in 2010 as branch manager of the bank's Winnemucca location, when she relocated from Reno.

An active member of the community, Flanagan has served on multiple boards, including the Humboldt County Chamber of Commerce, Safe Haven Wildlife Sanctuary, and the Humboldt County Debt Management Commission. She will continue with her passion for community involvement with her return to the Reno/Sparks market.

“We are thrilled to have Jamie on our retail banking leadership team,” said Debby Herman, senior vice president and northern Nevada region manager for Nevada State Bank. “She is greatly experienced in assisting our clients with all of their banking needs and will continue to provide the highest level of service.”
