Nevada State Bank promotes Erica Benson Suci to The Private Bank group

LAS VEGAS – Nevada State Bank has promoted Erica Benson Suci to vice president and private banking officer with The Private Bank by Nevada State Bank. In her new role, she is responsible for providing high net worth clients with personalized attention and a full range of financial services.

Suci has been with Nevada State Bank for more than 15 years, holding numerous positions, including professional banker, branch service manager, business center manager, territory sales manager and small-business relationship officer. Most recently, she served as branch manager for the bank's Twain and Jones location.

"We are excited to have Erica join the private banking team," said James Rensvold, senior vice president and manager of The Private Bank by Nevada State Bank. "She has consistently exceeded expectations during her tenure at the bank, and her experience in client relations and banking operations make her an asset for our clients."

A graduate of University of Nevada, Las Vegas, Suci is an active member of several local charities, including the March of Dimes, American Heart Association and Junior Achievement of Southern Nevada. She is also a graduate of the prestigious Leadership Las Vegas program.
