Nevada State Bank appoints Danny Lainhart and Donna Haberman to retail banking management positions

LAS VEGAS – Nevada State Bank has appointed Danny Lainhart to vice president, retail banking sales manager and Donna Haberman to vice president, market manager in southern Nevada.

Lainhart has more than 12 years of banking experience, serving in various management roles for the last 11 years. Most recently, he was the retail market sales manager supporting Las Vegas area branches.

Haberman began her banking career with Nevada State Bank in 2003. She has served in various management roles, most recently as the branch manager at the Pebble branch, following five years of successfully managing the Henderson branch.

In their new roles, both Lainhart and Haberman will assist Nevada State Bank branches in southern Nevada with reinforcing and implementing processes and routines with a focus on bank goals and providing world-class customer service.

“Having Danny and Donna on the retail banking management team is instrumental in our efforts to build toward excellence,” said Craig Kirkland, executive vice president and director of retail banking for Nevada State Bank. “Their ability to identify improvement opportunities will be critical to our continued success.”
