Brett Valdez joins Nevada State Bank as vice president, corporate banking relationship manager

LAS VEGAS – Nevada State Bank has named Brett Valdez vice president and corporate banking relationship manager, where he is responsible for growing the bank's business relationships in the corporate banking sector in the Las Vegas region.

Valdez has more than eight years of experience in portfolio management, credit analysis, financial analysis, leadership and commercial banking. He previously served as a relationship manager in the commercial banking group at U.S. Bank in Orange County, Calif.

Valdez was a member of United Way of Orange County's Emerging Leaders United (ELU) group, which engages young professionals in efforts to raise awareness and resources to improve education, income, and health outcomes in Orange County's underserved communities. He also served as treasurer of the Southern California chapter of U.S. Bank's Nosotros Latino Business Resource Group. Valdez was also selected as a member to serve on Jamboree Housing Corporation's advisory board and audit committee. Valdez is very passionate about traveling the world, and has visited 27 countries to date.

"We are delighted to welcome Brett to our corporate banking team," said Shannon Petersen, executive vice president and corporate banking manager for Nevada State Bank. "His experience and knowledge specializing in commercial banking will be instrumental in meeting the needs of our clients and building on our commitment to provide exceptional service."
