Nevada State Bank hosting food drive to benefit the Las Vegas Rescue Mission

LAS VEGAS – Nevada State Bank is hosting a food drive to benefit the Las Vegas Rescue Mission beginning Monday, Oct. 15, until Friday, Nov. 9. The donations collected will help feed the thousands of Las Vegas Rescue Mission clients. Non-perishable food items can be dropped off at any Nevada State Bank branch location in the Las Vegas Valley.

Suggested donation items include: instant potatoes, canned vegetables, rice, pasta, canned/instant soup, ramen noodles, cranberries/cranberry sauce, stuffing and other non-perishable food items.

“Assisting our communities through charitable giving and volunteerism is part of our core values at Nevada State Bank,” said Craig Kirkland, executive vice president, director of retail banking for Nevada State Bank and member of the Las Vegas Rescue Mission board of directors. “In addition to the food drive, many of our colleagues volunteer their time serving meals at the Las Vegas Rescue Mission throughout the year and participate in the annual Walk a Mile in My Shoes event that raises awareness of the struggles faced by local homeless.”

Founded in 1970, the Las Vegas Rescue Mission provides meals, shelters and recovery programs to people in need. The organization serves approximately 30,000 meals a month and a total of 353,080 meals were served in 2017. The Rescue Mission also operates a thrift store at 480 W. Bonanza Road.
