Nevada State Bank Sweeps State Contests for Second Year in a Row

LAS VEGAS – In 2018, Nevada State Bank repeated the extraordinary feat it accomplished last year – winning a top honor in the state’s three metropolitan areas: Las Vegas, Reno and Elko.

“We are extremely proud that for a second year in a row our clients across Nevada have named us as their favorite bank,” said Terry Shirey, president and CEO of Nevada State Bank. “We’ve been serving Nevada families and businesses for nearly 60 years. The long-term relationships we’ve developed over the years have translated into a loyal client base that helped us win these prestigious awards. We appreciate our clients, and it’s gratifying to know that they appreciate us as well.”

The first award for Nevada State Bank came in September with the announcement that it was voted “Best Bank” in Northern Nevada in the “Best of Reno” contest presented by the Reno Gazette-Journal. Winners of this competition were both nominated and voted on by local residents. This year more than 20,000 readers cast more than 190,000 votes for their favorite people, places, businesses and things in Reno/Sparks.

In the October 14 issue of the Las Vegas Review-Journal, Nevada State Bank was named the Gold award winner for “Best Bank, Professional Services” in the 2018 Las Vegas Review-Journal “Best of Las Vegas” readers’ poll. The bank was also awarded the Bronze for “Best Mortgage Lender.” This year’s “Best of Las Vegas” had the largest participation in the 37-year history of the contest. More than 3.1 million votes were cast across the 2,198 businesses nominated in 275 categories.

In northeastern Nevada, Nevada State Bank won four Readers’ Choice Awards in late October, with readers of the Elko Daily Free Press selecting the bank as the Gold winner in the “Best Bank” and “Customer Service – Finance and Professional Services” categories and the Silver winner for “Best Lender” and “Best Mortgage Lender.”
