The Las Vegas Metro Chamber of Commerce installs 2019 Chairman of the Board
Terry Shirey, president & CEO of Nevada State Bank

LAS VEGAS – Terry Shirey, Nevada State Bank president and CEO, has been installed as the 2019 chairman of the board for the Las Vegas Metro Chamber of Commerce. The installation took place at the chamber’s annual State of the Chamber and Installation Luncheon held at The Cosmopolitan on Dec. 12.

“I am honored to accept this position,” said Shirey. “The chamber’s work is vital to the city’s business community and I look forward to working with the board, volunteers, and staff to keep the organization on a path of success and to promote the interest and ensure the success of local businesses.”

Shirey’s vision for Southern Nevada’s business community includes continuing the promotion of Las Vegas as a world-class city with a vibrant small-business community, a diverse economy, robust education opportunities, first-class medical care and a pro-business climate.

Named Nevada State Bank’s president and CEO in January 2017, Shirey formerly served as chief financial officer for six years before being named president and chief operating officer in September 2014. He oversees all five banking lines of business – retail, real estate, small business, commercial, and private banking – as well as all bank operations in Nevada.

Shirey holds a CPA certificate and has more than 20 years of experience in the financial industry, with a majority spent managing finance and operations for large banks and bank holding companies. He received his bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Wyoming. In addition to the Las Vegas Metro Chamber, he currently serves on the executive committee for the College of Southern Nevada Foundation, and is a past chairman of the Nevada Bankers Association.
