Nevada State Bank wins two titles in Best of Northern Nevada contest

RENO – Nevada State Bank won in the categories of Best Bank and Best Local Place to Work in the Best of Northern Nevada poll of Reno News & Review readers.

The Reno News & Review readers' poll is the region's largest, most comprehensive and longest-running reader survey, according to the local weekly publication.

"It's rewarding to be recognized by our clients, neighbors and colleagues," said Terry Shirey, president and CEO of Nevada State Bank. "Thank you to everyone who supports Nevada State Bank."

Winners of this competition are nominated and voted on by Northern Nevada residents. This year, the publication reported that tens of thousands of readers voted in nearly 300 categories covering everything from their favorite people and places to the best businesses in the Reno-Sparks area.
